Lovely winemakers house full of character with original features, a terrace, garden and large garage plus shop. The house offers 156m² of living space with four bedrooms, a large open plan kitchen dining room and a large lounge. The terrace is 115m² and the garden a further 250m² with plenty of space for an above ground pool.

It was renovated in 2010 with a new roof, reversible air conditioning (heating and cooling) and solar hot water. There is still some work to be done on the terrace and the attic can be renovated. There is also a building that can be renovated or extended in the garden.

The 180m² garage at street level has been used as a workshop / gallery and has commercial status, as does the smaller shop of 40m². These could both be rented for additional income.
