Ciudad Quesada is located on the Costa Blanca South just 8 kilometers north from the major town of Torrevieja. Nearby towns include Rojales and San Fulgencio.

Ciudad Quesada is an unusual town because it really didn't exist until the early 1970's when a Spanish entrepreneur called Justo Quesada Samper decided to start his own town. The urbanisation grew and finally it was accepted as a real Spanish town.

Ciudad Quesada is a popular place where many people live all the whole year round. It has plenty of shops, bars and Ciudad Quesada restaurants.

Ciudad Quesada also has a golf course and aqua park so it does have its own unique attractions.

Many award-winning sandy blue flag beaches are just a few minutes drive away at Guardamar del Segura. The urbanisation is well-designed with good landscaped features. The views are good, inland you have mountains, the countryside surrounding Ciudad Quesada includes orange groves and the salt lakes of Torrevieja.
